ASK B. & O. FOR BETTER SERVICE

Fairmont Men Start Agitation for Additional Sleeping Car.

For many years there has been complaint among the people of this section of the state about the poor train service from here to the State Capital at Charleston, especially night service.

Heretofore the patrons of the B. & O. have been obliged to either go to Moundsville or Wheeling on No. 55 and take a chance on the Pittsburgh and Wheeling sleeper for Huntington, or else go to Parkersburg on the Grafton No. 55 and take a chance on securing a berth there for Huntington at a late hour in the night.

Besides people going to the state capital, Huntington and other sections of the state, over the Baltimore & Ohio, the traveling public including the officers and employees of Consolidation Coal Company, Elkhorn Fuel company, and other large corporations, who travel constantly, must suffer this inconvenience over that route to Kentucky.

To get the B. & O. to take official action J. Ed. Robinson, of the West Virginia Gas Association, and Col. W. H. Conaway, have been quietly working on the movement for better service, and on Saturday applied to George W. Squigens, General Passenger Agent of the Baltimore & Ohio, for a return sleeper out of Grafton, on the Parkersburg 55, for Huntington and Charleston and will later ask the Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce of Fairmont and other surrounding cities and the Transportation Committee of citizens recently organized by Senator Watson to lend their influence and co-operation to this effort which means much to our people. Their letter to Mr. Squigens reads:

September 23, 1916.
Mr. George W. Squigens,
Gen. Passenger Agent, B. & O.
R. R. Company,
Baltimore, Md.

Dear Sir: To get from Fairmont and the Northeastern section of West Virginia to Charleston, the State Capital, by night service, the patrons of your road must go to Moundsville or Wheeling, and take the chance of securing a sleeper from there to Huntington; or go via Parkersburg to Parkersburg, No. 55, out of Grafton, and take the chance of getting the mid-night sleeper there from Wheeling for Pittsburgh. This arrangement has proven a great hardship to the people of this section, who furnish most of the travel for the Wheeling sleeper. Often times there are no berths and they are required to ride in day-coaches to Huntington in order to make the trip and keep their appointments.

This situation could be relieved by placing a sleeper on No. 55 at Grafton to Parkersburg, then detoured to the Ohio River Line at Parkersburg, for Huntington, to be picked up by the Pittsburgh-Huntington night train.

In this way the patrons from this section of the state could arrive early. The Parkersburg patrons could occupy the same sleeper at an earlier hour. The Moundsville and Wheeling patrons would be accommodated by the Parkersburg sleeper, whereas, the Parkersburg section, and this section, must wait the arrival of the Pittsburgh and Wheeling sleeper and take the chance of getting berths.

This is a suggestion for going to Huntington. In return, the passengers for Parkersburg, and that section, could remain on the sleeper until 7 a. m., when it could be again detoured from the Ohio River Line to the Grafton Main Line, and attached to the morning accommodation leaving Parkersburg at 7:10 a. m. for Grafton. This arrangement would be very popular with the patrons from Parkersburg, Weston, Buckhannon, Nikias, Philippi, Grafton and the eastern panhandle, as well as Morgantown, Kingwood and Fairmont.

We would like to have your expression in this matter, and if possible to secure such a sleeper, would like to have your co-operation and influence.

PREFERENCE.

Being single and his mother and sisters being well provided for by the business, a patriotic Scottish grocer decided to enlist, leaving his assistant, one Mackay, in charge. But a few months later the master was dumb-founded to meet his late assistant, at

"His men," he said, angrily, "did I no' tell ye tae stay at hame in charge o' me shop?"

"So I thoct at the time, maister," replied Mackay, "but I sune fun' out it widge only the shop I was in charge o', but a' yer womenfolk. 'Man,' see I tae maseit, 'gin ye've got to fecht gang an' fecht some one ye can hit! So I fined."

The national guard

For defense against invasion, our real national guard is the millions of stalwart, young Americans in all walks of life, who must respond to their country's call for training and service in the ranks of our army and navy. For defense against invasion of the elements CERTAIN-TEED Roofing is the real 'national guard'.

Certain-teed Roofing protects our buildings from the violence of storms; successfully resists the attacks of rain, hail, sleet and snow; is unaffected by the sharp assaults of frost, and the withering fire of mid-summer sun. It even withstands the ravages of time, for CERTAIN-TEED Roofing is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to ply (1, 2 or 3). Experience proves that it will out-last the period of guarantee.

The long life of CERTAIN-TEED is due to the fact that it does not dry out, as ordinary roofing does. This is because it is made of the best quality roofing felt, thoroughly saturated with a blend of soft asphalt—the formula of the General's Board of Expert Chemists. This soft saturation is then covered with a coating of a harder blend of asphalt, which prevents the drying-out process, and keeps CERTAIN-TEED impervious to the elements for years after the harder, drier kinds of roofing have dried out and gone.

CERTAIN-TEED is made in rolls; also in slate-surfaced shingles. There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED Roofing for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roofs, from the largest sky-scraper to the smallest residence or out-building.

CERTAIN-TEED is sold by responsible dealers all over the world, at reasonable prices. Investigate it before you decide on any type of roof.
